Security workers are agents of PEACE, not war

José Boaventura Santos – CNTV’s President and Amaro Pereira Da Silva Filho – International Relations’ Secretary: Present at the 6° UNI International Congress

Vigilants, through CNTV and together with other Brazilian syndicate entities from the service sector ( bankers, merchants, communications, cleanliness & conservation, Mail, and others) participate in the UNI GLOBAL UNION congress initiated this Sunday, August 28, goin until August 30 in Philadelphia, United States of America.

The opening ceremony of the congress was attended by USA and WorldWide Syndical leaders, besides the Philadelphia city Mayor and the Senator and former Democratic candidate for president of the USA, Bernie Sanders.

CNTV has the responsibility to take the yearnings and Brazilian vigilants' perspectives, sharing our fights and achievements with colleagues from around the world. Learn with the same professionals about your organization, fights and achievements, bringing to Brazil successful experiences, applying what is compatible with our culture and our capacity of fight.

Private security in the world is also globalized. G4S, the world's largest private security company is already in Brazil, joining other foreigners companies present in the country longer: Prosegur and Brinks. By the way, companies that attack the rights of vigilantes in almost all the places where they are present.

Private security has also stood out in the world from mercenary companies (Wagner Group from Russia, Blackwater from USA, for example) that act or acted in the dirty work of the war in Ukraine, Iraq, Afghanistan, etc.

At the Philadelphia congress, we shared with other security guard unions around the world our struggles and achievements, as well as our concerns and proposals for private security workers to be agents of peace, not war. Democracy, freedom and human dignity.

Workers of the world, unite.
